

INSURANCE WAS FOUGHT TODAY

Ekern's Forces Defeated In Critical Fight In The Assembly This Morning.

TWO PER CENT MEASURE PASSED

Davidson Sends In Two New Vetoes--Senate Also Knocks
Out The Nye Bill Relative To The Election
Of A United States Senator.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., June 27.—The taxation of life insurance companies was on for discussion this morning and by a vote of 33 to 47 the assembly killed the bill to repeal the old law taxing the insurance companies, 3 per cent on their gross income and to fix a two-percent tax instead.

The Senate Bill

The senate bill was then discussed, Speaker Ekern taking the floor against it, his assembly bill having been killed. This senate bill provides for a tax of 2 per cent on all premiums collected in this state. A motion to non-concur was lost by a vote of 36 to 42 and the Ekern camp forced a recess until 2 o'clock before the measure could be finally disposed of.

Another Veto

Gov. Davidson also sent in his veto of the bill to create a teaching employment agency on the grounds of public policy, asserting that the profession is able to take care of itself. He also vetoed the bill to legalize the acts of municipalities in aiding in the construction of railroads.

The Nye Bill

After a fierce debate by a vote of 20 to 6 the senate killed the Nye bill which provides that if at a primary none of the candidates for United States senator receive a majority, the two highest shall be placed upon the general election ticket. Senators Lockney, Martin, Sanborn and Owens spoke for the measure, and Senators Munson, Brazeau, Page, Wilcox and Hastings against it.

The Argument

The principal argument was that the members of other parties would interfere with the selection of a candidate of the other party.

Killed the Bill

The senate also killed the two-cent rate bill by a vote of 21 to 5.

HISTORICAL PAGEANT AT UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Events In History Of England's Greatest School Will Be Reproduced During Commencement.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, June 27.—During the six days beginning today the historic city of Oxford is to be the scene of a commemorative pageant that in many respects will be the most notable affair of its kind ever given in England. The city and university of Oxford are rich in historical associations. During the week a number of the most memorable events in their history are to be reproduced in a series of magnificent tableaux. Two thousand persons are to take part in these tableaux. The Prince and Princess of Wales are the patrons of the affair, and the professors and fellows of the university and the several colleges have supervised the preparations.

Beerbohm Tree is directing the dramatic features of the pageant, which will include historical episodes put into form by some of the leading dramatists of England. The music, which will follow the historical development of that art with great fidelity, will be under the direction of Sir Hubert Parry, professor of music at Oxford. Edwin A. Abbey and other distinguished artists assisted in designing the costumes.

The first scene to be presented will be the foundation of the city of Oxford in the year 753, according to the legend of St. Frideswide. The next scene occurred in 1002, when, in consequence of the plot against himself and his mother, King Ethelred the Unready issued an edict that on St. Brice's day all the Danes throughout the kingdom should be massacred. The representatives of that race in Oxford sought sanctuary in a church built by St. Frideswide, but the infuriated citizens burned it down and slew them all.

Other scenes will represent the coronation of Harold Harefoot, the funeral of Amy Robsart, an Elizabethan procession, the visit of James I. to Oxford in 1605, and the expulsion of Fellows of Magdalen by James II. in 1687.

Smith of the University of Virginia, and Prof. George Rice Carpenter of Columbia University. Governor Malcolm R. Patterson represented the State of Tennessee and delivered a congratulatory address. MANY OUT OF TOWN BUYERS HERE TODAY

Dealers from Chicago, Milwaukee and Lake Geneva Among Purchasers
at Horse Sale.

Buyers from Chicago, Milwaukee, Lake Geneva and all the nearby city and country towns were here today for the regular monthly horse sale at the East Side Hitch Stable. A goodly number of animals for driving and for work were exhibited and the usual average of sales made. Horseflesh is bringing a high price and all animals that changed hands today went at top-notch figures. The fact that crops are growing rapidly hereabouts and recent rains have made it impossible for farmers to keep up with their work resulted in keeping a number of sellers and buyers in the country, the weather being ideal for transplanting tobacco and other field work.

MEETING AT RINK

LARGEST THUS FAR EXCEPT LAST SUNDAY NIGHT.

EXCURSION FROM MONROE

One Hundred Journeyed from Their Home Town to Hear Noted Evangelist.

Last night was the largest attendance for any night except Sunday—
 many people from the country.
 One hundred people of Monroe chartered a special train to attend the meeting last night. Bankers, lawyers, merchants and preachers were among the party who came to hear Dr. Scoville, all returning on the train at eleven o'clock last night.
 Their presence gave great inspiration to the meeting, making it one of the best. Preachers from out of town last night were: The Revs. B. C. Dixon, J. P. Nienstedt, E. Berkey, of Monroe; Rev. Dr. W. F. Brown and
 W. A. Nowling of Beloit; Rev. Andrew Porter and his wife, of Milton; Jun-cion and Rev. J. T. Fish of Oconto.
 The song service of last evening
 was no exception; it was indeed soul-inspiring. Messrs. DeLoss Smith and Van Camp sang "Be Ye Ready to Go" with great effect. Mr. Smith sang a solo, "Open My Eyes That I May See."

Dr. Scoville took for his text, "I say unto you likewise there is joy
 in heaven over one sinner that repenteth."

In Luke 15th that is repeated three times. There is the story of the lost silver, of the lost sheep, and the lost son.

What joy there must have been in heaven when Gladstone was saved,
 when Garfield was saved! Possibly Garfield and McKinley saved more by their death than by their life. The dying words of McKinley sounded around the world.

An angel rejoices when a soul is saved. There must have been great joy in heaven last night when 41 stepped out for the Master and 72 on Sunday. What is repentance? The man that turns to Christ away from wrong and square around toward the right, is repentant.

We feel sometimes if we have the best organ, and the best church, and the best preaching, we are doing much good, but there is joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth.
 The gospel is a good thing for Milton Junction, but how about Janesville? It is a fine thing in the alley, but not for the boulevard. I tell you, sin did not begin in the slums,
 but in the garden.

Don't stand in the corners, in the barber shops and the saloons and make fun while we are trying to save your boys and girls from sin. Influence is a wonderful thing. No man can live to himself alone and no man can die to himself alone.
 Another reason for joy in heaven is that we have so little time. Tomorrow is a sad word; many a boy and girl goes wrong, because he says tomorrow. Chloroform will lull to sleep, but Satan carries a bottle on which is written, not chloroform, but tomorrow. This is how Satan puts it, not now. More people are lost because of that word tomorrow than any other word. I do not wonder there is joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth.

What is a Christian? Would you call a man a doctor who had no patients? Would you call a man a doctor who never repaired a watch? And yet many people call themselves Christians who have no interest in the salvation of others, and never try to lead anyone to Christ.
 We can stand and laugh at death,
 the minister can preach a beautiful sermon, and that is right, and the friends send the most beautiful flowers, and the sweetest songs are sung, which is right, but I tell you when you come down yourself to death it is not flowers and singing and music
 that you want, but the Lord Jesus Christ.

Here Dr. Scoville related a pathetic story of a man who dashed his little boy to death while in a drunken frenzy, and said "I propose to be the enemy of the saloon till the last screw is in my coffin," the applause which greeted this expression showed the intense interest in this question which is agitating the minds of the people as never before. The cry has gone forth the saloon must go.
 A man said I was born with the devil in me, and Gypsy Smith said,
 you can be born again with the devil
 out.

Dr. Scoville's wonderful appeals are enough to melt the hardest heart into submission to the Christ. Do not miss this opportunity of yielding to the Christ your life.

Meeting tonight at 7:30. The theme will be "The Unpardonable Sin." The noon meetings are working a silent influence among the factories of the city. And the quiet influence exerted by Dr. and Mrs. Betts outside the meetings cannot be estimated.

 Preventics are thoroughly harmless little Candy Cold Cure tablets. No Quinine, no laxative, nothing sickening whatever.
 To check early Colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia.
 To stop a cold with Preventics is surely safer than to let it run and be obliged to reach a deeply seated cold. But taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break or head off these early colds. That is surely better—that is why they are named "Preventics." Promptness however is all-important. Promptness in the use of Preventics may save half your usual sickness.
 Feverishness, night cough, with children, suggests the need of Preventics.

SEVEN TEAMS ENTER
BOWER CITY LEAGUE

Articles of Agreement Accepted and Officers Will be Elected Next Week.

Representatives of the six baseball teams originally picked for the proposed Bower City League and a seventh nine, made up of machinists from the different shops of the city, gathered at the Y. M. C. A. building last evening. The articles of agreement drawn up by an organizing committee were accepted by all clubs and it was decided to make the managers an executive committee to arrange a schedule of games. The body will meet next week to elect officers for the league and arrange for games the following Saturday. Seven teams were placed in the league because every week some one or other will be unable to play—the Lewis Knitting Company Browns have dates with four outside teams. Different establishments will hold picnics on Saturday afternoons and there are other circumstances which will prevent the nine playing regularly. The clubs in the new league are Y. M. C. A. Parker Pen company, Wisconsin Carriage company, Lewis Knitting company,
 Gazette, Printing company, Chicago &
 Northwestern roundhouse employees and Machinists.

SUNSHINE BRINGING
CROPS TO NORMAL

Weather Bureau Report Says Results
 of Late Spring Will Not Be Noticeable at Harvest Time.

Following the weekly Wisconsin
 weather bulletin issued by the Weather Bureau of the United States Agricultural Department:

The weather during the week ending
 June 24th was generally favorable
 throughout the state for plant growth and outdoor work. This completes a period of two weeks of good weather and during that time vegetation has shown a very decided improvement and is now reaching normal condition.

The week opened very warm, the maximum temperature over the state being 90 degrees to 97 degrees on Monday the 17th, but the temperature for the entire week was about 3 degrees above the normal, being 2 degrees above on the western side of the state and increasing to about 6 degrees above along the Lake Michigan shore.

The precipitation occurred mostly in the form of thunderstorms and was quite unevenly distributed over the state. The heaviest rainfalls were reported in the central and west-central sections, while the total amount for the week was comparatively small in the northern and east-central sections. More rain is needed in the northern counties, but elsewhere the soil is generally reported in an excellent condition.

THIRTY-SIX THUS FAR
SEEKING BAR-PERMITS

Application Has Been Made But For
 One New Stand—Council Will Take Action Next Monday Night.

Applications for thirty-six saloon licenses have thus far been filed with the city clerk. The Schlitz Co. has also applied for a brewers' license
 but the Pabst and Gund people are not to be heard from. The only application for a bar in a new location is that presented by Henry Nelson of Madison who seeks to open a spirits and malt liquor dispensary in the old McCue & Buss drug store stand at 131 West Milwaukee street. The city council will act on the applications
 next Monday evening.

General Horace Porter.

General Horace Porter, best known to the public through his long service
 as the American ambassador at Paris,
 who is a delegate to the peace conference, was born at Huntington, Pa., on April 15th, 1837. General Porter graduated at Harvard and then went to West Point, where he finished his course in 1860. He married in December, 1860, Miss Sophie K. McHarg.
 He served throughout the civil war and was made private secretary to President Grant from 1869 until 1877.
 His successful mission to France was recognized by the gift of the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor in 1904.
 He served at Paris from 1897 until 1905. He is noted as an orator and has been very successful as a business man.

Flew Too High at First.

The mistakes inexperienced music teachers make in mapping out courses of study for their pupils are almost incredible. A young girl came to me for lessons recently, says Robert D.
 Brain, in the Etude, and I found that the course she was studying was as follows: For exercises she had the entire list of Beethoven sonatas in two volumes, having already "been through" the first volume; for a solo
 she had Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody
 No. 2. She could not play any of the scales, and had to be put back to easy
 studies and a simple waltz by Durand.

 Residence and Christ Church
 This Afternoon.

This afternoon all that was mortal
 of Mrs. Sarah V. Bailey, one of Janes-ville's pioneer residents, was laid at services were held at her late residence on Eastern avenue at two and from Christ Episcopal church at three.

 The services were read by Rev. John McKinney. The pallbearers were E.
 B. Heinstreet, Frank Baines, W. T.
 Tallman, F. L. Clemons, Dr. Schlertinger and Robert Bostwick, Jr. J.

THE LATE MRS. SARAH V. BAILEY

ary 11, 1817, and died last Monday,
 aged ninety years and five months.
 Her parents came to this country
 when she was four years of age and her early life was spent in New York city and Albany. In 1842 she came to Janesville, Wisconsin, the bride of Abraham C. Bailey, one of the most prominent of Janesville's earlier advocates and judges. Their former home on North Main street, which still stands, was one of the first three brick buildings erected in this city.
 Mrs. Bailey has lived here for the past sixty-five years and has seen this city grow from a small village composed of one frame house and a group of log cabins to its present importance. She was one of the six charter members of the Episcopal church, and the latter days of her life have been characterized by that perfect peace which "passeth understanding."
 Always bright and cheerful, ready to go at her Master's call, she, as her many friends have expressed it, grew old gracefully and was ninety years young. She retained her active mental powers and genial, happy outlook upon the world to the latest day of her life and has left with her devoted daughters and friends a memory to be forever cherished. She is survived by five children—Frances H., M. Ma-tidale and Albert W. Bailey of Janesville, Nathan P. Bailey of Los Angeles, Cal., and Frank C. Bailey of Spokane, Wash.

LULA FISHER

The funeral of Lula Fisher, daughter of Mrs. Emma C. Fisher of Center, at the family residence, this afternoon was attended by a large number of the relatives and friends. In-pressive yet simple services were conducted by Rev. Clappes of Rockville.
 The song service was beautifully rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bemis.
 The interment was at Bethel cemetery. The casket was banked with large floral offerings. An especial offering was the gift of the Laurean society of the Janesville high school,
 of which the deceased was a member.
 The pallbearers were her cousins—
 Zene Fisher, Stanley Fisher, Glen Fisher, Lee Fisher, Clayton Fisher
 and Charlie Fisher. Though not yet twenty years of age she had, by her kindly acts and her lovely disposition, greatly endeared herself to the hearts of all, and in her early death
 the community has sustained a loss that will be sorely felt. Her family have the heartfelt and tender sympathy of all, in this, the dark hour
 of their bereavement and sorrow.

MRS. RUBY CLARK MAY BE IN JANESVILLE

Trunk of Unfortunate Woman Arrested
 in Rockford for Killing Babies.

There is a possibility that Mrs.
 Ruby Clark, the unfortunate white woman who was arrested in Rockford recently charged with having smothered one of twin babies born to her, is hiding in Janesville. Mrs. Clark disappeared from the Rockford hospital where she was confined and it is said was spirited across the state line into Wisconsin in an automobile last Tuesday, the trunk with her belongings was brought into Beloit by a Rockford woman said to be implicated in her escape, and was taken from the St. Paul depot by a drayman. It is intimated that it was hurried aboard
 a train for Janesville. Another idea is that she is hiding in Whitewater where she has relatives.

CHARLES VALENTINE HAS $3,600 DOLLAR

Coin of 1804 Brought High Price in Philadelphia Yesterday and Postmaster Here Has Counterpart.

Postmaster Charles L. Valentine possesses a silver dollar which unless its date—1804—has been altered is worth $3,600 for one of the same issue was sold at auction in Philadelphia yesterday and brought that amount. The fact that there are but half a dozen of these coins extant is the cause for the extremely high market value. The issue of United States dollars in 1804 was as large as those of the preceding years but it is believed that the entire issue, or nearly that, was sent out of the country in payment for a debt as silver was then a world standard. In some manner all but a few of these coins have been dropped out of sight and they have been worth large sums for many years. The dollar that sold for $3,600 yesterday was from the collection of the late M. A. Stickney and came into his possession in 1843. He had often been offered a thousand dollars for it, and it was at that figure the bidding of yesterday started.

There is no doubt about Mr. Valentine's treasure, being a genuine dollar, but there has always been a question as to whether the date has not been altered. He bought the coin many years ago, paying a young man from Iowa fifteen dollars for it. The seller said he had secured it from the keeper of a small store where it was taken in. It is bright and hardly worn, and had no doubt been kept as a souvenir during the greater part of its existence. When Mr. Valentine first secured it he sent it to the Washington mint. An expert there pronounced it a dollar of 1802. Later Mr. Valentine had a Kalamazoo man take it to the same mint and it was pronounced a coin of the 1803 issue. Thus it is shown that the experts have been in error and Mr. Valentine is inclined to put faith in the dollar's date. He believes its slight difference from the other 1804 dollars is simply the result of being made from a different die.

REFUSE PILES IN ALLEYS AND YARDS

Are Found to Be Many and Large by Newly-Appointed Health Inspector.

Alleys, both public and private, and backyards in the city of Janesville are unnecessarily filthy and contain many health-endangering piles of refuse. Such conditions have been found to exist by Frank O. Holt, who was recently appointed city health inspector by Health Officer Merritt and City Attorney Maxfield. Since Monday he has received numerous complaints from all parts of the city and after investigating the merits of each has ordered many property owners to clean their premises. One of the most flagrant violations of the state laws and city ordinances, was found on Western avenue. One woman complained that the odor from a neighbor's yard all but caused her to faint and investigation revealed that the offender had until recently kept hogs, feeding them decomposed kitchen refuse.

PROSPECTS FOR A BANNER BEET CROP

LaFayette Myers Says This Year's Yield Will Be Enormous—Crop Looks Good.

Mr. Myers visited the farms in the vicinity of Beloit yesterday and says that the beet factory has one hundred and thirty acres under contract where they have only had ten or twelve in past years. Beets appear to have thrived this season where other crops have been ruined by the excessive moisture.

LESS TWINE IS TO BE USED IN FUTURE

Postal Clerks Are Instructed to be More Saving in the Future of Twine.

To meet the emergency caused by the advance in price of twine and the consequent insufficiency of the appropriation for its purchase, Postmaster General Meyer has issued an order directing all employees in the postal service to exercise the greatest economy in the use of twine.

Clerks in postoffices and in the railway mail service are instructed in tying up packages of letters to use only enough twine to make the package secure, and the removal of twine from the packages at points of destination must be done in such a manner as to render its further use possible. Heretofore it has nearly always been thrown away after being removed from packages and there has not been proper discrimination in the quantity used.

Two million pounds, or about 900,000,000 yards, of twine has been used in the postal service during the present fiscal year.

Postmasters and all concerned are notified that shortly after June 30, 1907, the department will begin the issue of stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers bearing embossed postage stamps of new designs in four denominations, 1, 2, 4 and 5-cent.

The form of these stamps will be an ellipse on end. The subjects, in blue relief, and the colors of their backgrounds will be:

- 1c, Benjamin Franklin, green.
- 2c, George Washington, red.
- 4c, Benjamin Franklin, black.
- 5c, George Washington, blue.

With a border surrounding the subject in blue relief will appear in white the names of the presidents of the "United States" and denomination. The denomination will appear also in large numerals, one on each side of the subject.

JANESVILLE GIRLS MOST ATTRACTIVE

Beloit Deplores That Their Youths Must Come to the Bower City to Make Calls.

In the Beloit News appears a wall of sorrow that seventy-five young Beloit men are forced to come to Janesville to find girls to call upon. The last car last Sunday night leaving for the Line City is said to have carried seventy-five youths' back to their Beloit homes after an evening spent in Janesville. The News says: "Seventy-five, count 'em."

"All from Beloit, too."

"Wonder what's the matter with the Beloit girls?"

These and similar exclamations might have been heard on the last car from Janesville Sunday night. The interior was crowded and all the passengers were men and boys and nearly all were from Beloit.

Some of them got on the car at the interurban waiting room, some "hopped" the trailer block or two farther down and a few straggled on at intervals till the car was outside the city limits. Some of the young men showed the effects of hard running. One or two said they had just caught the car "by the skin of their teeth."

ELDORADO STOCK CO. IS STRANDED HERE

Temporarily, Pending the Return of Manager W. J. Wright—Week's Engagement Abruptly Terminated Last Night.

"Can't someone get me a piece of line and a couple of worms so's I can go fishing and forget my troubles?" said Miss Agnes French to a little knot of idlers seated on one of the transfer wagons, just east of the Myers theatre this afternoon.

"Oh, there's no use worrying about it—we'll be all straightened out in a day or two, maybe tonight, if Wright gets back," was the rejoinder of C. Howard, another member of the Eldorado Stock company which is stranded here temporarily with only its properties and wealthy sounding name to bank on. "Well, this is the second time this year I've gone broke but there's some good junk in my trunk, even if I haven't any diamonds as THEY have," was the cheerful announcement made by Miss Marie Loyal.

The "they" referred to are Will and Jessie La Rose and daughter, Augusta Belle La Rose, who with the piano player took their departure for Chicago this morning. According to the other members of the company the trio were to blame for all the trouble. They had been kicking and demanding their pay nightly ever since rumor reached them that the management was preparing to fill their places. The manager, W. J. Wright, went to Chicago Tuesday night and when the La Roses while the other members of the company were supposed to wait until Thursday, the regular pay day, with slim patronage and a deficit staring them in their faces, they made themselves heard. Perfectly willing to share on "the commonwealth plan" in the slim proceeds until Mr. Wright should return, they refused to continue in their work while the La Roses continued to get all the money paid out.

While patrons were filing into the theatre last night the indignation party called at the box-office and stated their grievances, coupling the statement with the announcement that they would no "go on" unless different arrangements were made. Whereupon, so they aver, Manager Myers terminated the engagement here, and this morning commenced an action in Judge Reeder's court to recover for the loss of his possible percentages for the balance of the week. The case will be tried on Monday.

Other members of the company are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Harrington. The show has been on the road for eighteen months and has been doing good business, it is claimed. It came here from Racine and will be reorganized, in case Mr. Wright brings some more talent back with him, to open for a week's engagement in Beloit next Monday. There is a carload of scenery and equipment. Most of the players are stopping at the Park hotel.

THE PRINCESS ELOPES

By HAROLD McGRATH
 AUTHOR OF "THE MAN ON THE BOX,"

COPYRIGHT, 1915,
 BOBBY McPHERSON CO.

"Did you enjoy the ride?" asked the Honorable Betty, as her highness came in to breakfast. There were no formalities in the princess's apartments.

"Beautifully!" Her highness guiltily wondered if there was any logical way to keep Betty in the house for the next few mornings. She sat down and sipped her tea. "The duke talked to me last night. Steinbock played double."

"What!"

"Yes. He sold us to the duke, who patiently waited for me to speak. Betty, I am a fool. But I shall never marry Doppelkinn. That is settled."

"I suppose he will be inviting me to return . . . to England," said Betty shrewdly.

"Not for the present."

"And I have just grown to love the place,"—pathetically. "Mr. Warrington has asked me to ride with him afterwards. His ankle prevents him from taking the long morning jaunts. If it will not interfere with your plans, dear—"

"Accept, by all means," interrupted her highness. "He is a capital horseman." She smiled mysteriously. Happily her companion was absorbed in thought and did not see this smile.

Max came in at a quarter of ten, went to tub and came down in time for the eggs.

"Have a good ride?" I asked.

"Bully! Beautiful country!" He was enthusiastic.

"How these healthy animals eat!" I thought as I observed him occasionally.

"Wish I could go with you," I said, but half-heartedly.

"I'll get the lay of the land quick enough," he replied.

The rascal! Not a word about the girl that morning, or the next, or until Thursday morning. If only I had known! But Fate knows her business better than I do, and she was handling the affair. But long rides of a morning with a pretty girl are not safe for my bachelor.

Thursday morning he came in late. He dropped something on the table on inspection. I found it to be a woman's handkerchief purse.

"Where the deuce did you get that?" asked, mighty curious.

"By George! but I've been enjoying the most enchanting adventure; such as you read out of a book. I'm inclined to believe that I shall enjoy my studies at old Barscheit."

"But where did you get this?" If there was a girl around, I wanted to know all about it.

"She dropped it!"

"She dropped it!" I repeated. "What he? Why, you old tow-head, have you been flirting at this hour of the morning?"

"Handsome as a picture!"

"Ha! the ideal at last,"—ironically. Blond, of course.

"Dark as a Spaniard; and rides like Diana." His enthusiasm was not to be rebuffed.

"H'm! Did you get as far as names?"

"Yes; I told her mine. Who is Hildegarde von Heldehoff?"

"Heldehoff?" I was puzzled. My suspicions evaporated. "I can't say that I know any one by that name. Sure it was Heldehoff?"

"Do you mean to tell me," with blank astonishment, "that there is a petticoat on horseback in this ducky that you do not know?"

"I don't know any woman by the name of Hildegarde von Heldehoff; on my word of honor, Max, I don't."

"Old Bauer, the blacksmith, knew her."

"Bauer? All my suspicions returned. Describe the girl to me."

"Handsome figure, masses of black hair, great black eyes, that are full of good fun, a delicate nose, and I might add, a very kissable mouth."

"What! have you kissed her?" I exclaimed.

"No, no! Only, I'd like to."

"H'm! You've made quite a study. She must be visiting some one nearby. There is an old castle three miles west of the smithy. Did she speak English?"

"Yes,"—excitedly.

"That accounts for it." An old English nobleman lives over there during the summer months, and it is not improbable that she's one of his guests." In my heart I knew that her highness was up to some of her tricks again, but there was no need of her shattering good old Max's heart. Yet I felt bound to say: "Why not look into the purse? There might be something there to prove her identity."

"Look into her purse?"—horrified.

"You wouldn't have me peeping into a woman's purse, would you? Suppose there should be a box of rouge? Her cheeks were red."

"Quite likely."

"Or a powder-puff."

"Even more likely."

"Or—"

"Go on."

"Or a love letter."

"I have my doubts," said I.

"Well, if you do not know who she is, I'll find out,"—undismayed.

Doubtless he would; he was a persistent old beggar, was Max.

"Do not let it get serious, my boy," I warned. "You could not marry any one in this country."

"Why not?"

"Have you been regularly baptized? Was your father?—Was your grandfather? Unless you can answer these simplest of questions and prove them, you could not get a license; and no priest or preacher would dare marry you without a license."

"Hang you, who's talking about getting married? All I want to know is, who is Hildegarde von Heldehoff, and how am I to return her purse? I shall ask the blacksmith!"

"Do so,"—taking up my egg spoon.

Max clipped the purse into his breast-pocket and sat down.

which was attacked to the notes, and depended upon the Volksgartha band for their evening's diversion.

You had to order your table hours ahead—that is, if you were a civilian. If you were lucky enough to be an officer, you were privileged to take any vacant chair you saw. But heaven aid you if you attempted to do this not being an officer! In Barschelt there were also many unwritten laws, and you were obliged to observe these with all the fidelity and attention that you gave to the enameled signs. Only the military had the right to request the orchestra to repeat a piece of music. Sometimes the lieutenants, seized with that gay humor known only to cubs, would force the orchestra in Muller's now, I can treat the whole affair with becoming levity, but at the time I gained several extra gray hairs.

If the princess hadn't turned around and if Max-hadn't wanted that box of Havana's!

When I arrived at Muller's I found my boys in a merry mood. They were stinging softly on "Robin Hood" with fine collegial harmony, and as I entered they swarmed about me like so many young dogs. Truth to tell, none of them was under 20, and two or three were older than myself. But to them I represented official protection for whatever they might do. I assumed all the dignity I dared. I had kept Scharfstein's name back as a surprise.

to play the Hungarian war song till the ears cried out in pain. This was always the case when any Austrians happened to be present. But ordinarily the crowds were good-natured, boisterous, but orderly.

It was here, then, that I had arranged to give my little dinner. The orchestra had agreed—for a liberal tip—to play "The Star-spangled Banner," and there was a case of Doppelkorn's sparkling Moselle. I may as well state right here that we neither heard our national anthem nor drank the vintage. You will soon learn why. I can laugh

COL. FERRARA QUILTS CUBAN DELEGATION

RESIGNS POSITION AT HAGUE BECAUSE OF ATTACKS.

REGRETTED BY MAGOON

Retiring Secretary Explains His Sentiment by Italian Court Years Ago and Its Annulment.

The Hague, June 27.—In an interview Wednesday Col. Orestes Ferrara, ex-secretary of the Cuban delegation to the peace conference, confirmed the report that he had tendered his resignation to Gov. Magoon. The latter in reply said he regretted the action of Col. Ferrara, who thus deprived the Cuban delegation of his services, adding that he only acceded to his request at the colonel's insistent demand.

The latter is waiting for official confirmation of the advice from Gov. Magoon before leaving The Hague. He declared he did not receive any notification requesting him to resign. He was not in the diplomatist profession, but the only solution he could see of the difficulties which had arisen owing to the attacks made upon him was his voluntary withdrawal from the delegation.

Truth About Italian Case.

Regarding his antecedents, Col. Ferrara said he left Italy at the age of 19, after studying at the University of Naples, and was hardly responsible for the "extreme" views which he then held. He went to Cuba, became a Cuban citizen in 1900 and published in Spanish a pamphlet in Paris on the "Influence of political economy on sociology." This was printed without his knowledge in a periodical of Naples as well as in other periodicals. The Italian authorities regarded the statements in the pamphlet as being seditious and prosecuted and punished all the Italian editors concerned in its reproduction.

Col. Ferrara was sentenced in contumacia to six months' imprisonment and only heard of the sentence two years after it had been pronounced. Three years ago the sentence was annulled.

It was officially stated at the headquarters of the Italian legation that no step against Col. Ferrara had been taken from here. The delegates did not know whether the Italian government had taken any action in the matter, but it was believed that no remonstrance had been made.

America Backs England.

The British proposition regarding the laying of floating mines, made before the first subcommittee (bombardment of harbors, laying of mines, etc.) of the third committee (maritime war) will be supported by the United States and Japan.

William T. Stead's paper, the Conference Courier, says the text of the propositions made by delegates "are mysteriously cabled to America, while they should be kept secret until the discussion is over."

Andrew Carnegie, having approved the site and plans for the palace of peace building, left The Hague Wednesday afternoon for Brussels on his way to Scotland.

Commits Suicide in Jail.

Newark, N. J., June 27.—Raphael Savaro, who Tuesday pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting an 11-year-old girl, killed himself in jail Wednesday. He dived from a balcony on the third floor to the lower floor, a distance of 30 feet, and struck on his head.

Pittsburg Spitters Are Fined.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 27.—In an effort to enforce an anti-spitting ordinance arrests by the wholesale were made in this city Wednesday. The offenders were fined one dollar each.

Balloonists Perish in Sea.

Nieuport, Belgium, June 27.—Tugs that went out Tuesday night in an attempt to reach a balloon that had fallen into the sea have returned, their search having proved fruitless. The balloon, carrying two men, was sent up at Dunkirk, and when the accident occurred the men took refuge in the netting. They undoubtedly have been drowned.

IRRIGATED LANDS COMPLETED.

Secretary Garfield Present at the Drawing at Billings, Mont.

Billings, Mont., June 27.—The formal opening of the first completed tract of irrigated land finished by the reclamation service of the national government took place Wednesday. Secretary of the Interior James Garfield, accompanied by E. W. Newell, director of the reclamation service; A. P. Davis, chief engineer of the service; Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry department; Richard A. Ballinger, commissioner of the general land office; H. N. Savage, supervising engineer of the reclamation service of the northwest, were present.

Fire in a Virginia Village.

Roanoke, Va., June 27.—Christiansburg, in Montgomery county, 35 miles west of here, was the scene early Thursday morning of a large fire, and in response to an urgent appeal received at 1:30 a. m., a fire company was sent from here by special train. The loss was said to be above $50,000. A number of business buildings and residences were destroyed.

CORNELL WINS BIG RACE

FIRST IN EIGHT-OARED CONTEST AT POUGHKEEPSIE.

Columbia a Close Second—Syracuse Four-Oared Shell and Wisconsin Freshmen Victors.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27.—Cornell won the 'varsity eight-oared race at the intercollegiate regatta for the eighth time late Wednesday evening in the most exciting contest ever rowed over the four-mile Poughkeepsie course.

Cornell's time over the course was 20:02 2-5 seconds. Columbia was second; United States Naval Academy third; Pennsylvania fourth; Wisconsin, fifth; Georgetown, sixth, and Syracuse did not finish, her shell being swamped a half mile from the finish line. The Ithacans won by the narrowest margin from Columbia, and until the finish line was crossed and the judges announced that Cornell had won the thousands of spectators, both afloat and ashore, were in doubt as to which crew won the victory.

Syracuse captured the honors of the 'varsity four-oared shells from Cornell, Pennsylvania and Columbia, which finished in the order named. Syracuse finished two lengths ahead of Cornell and her time over the two-mile course was 10 minutes and 37 1-5 seconds.

Wisconsin won the freshmen eight-oared shell race over the course of two miles, leading Syracuse over the finish line by one length and covering the distance in nine minutes and 55 seconds. Pennsylvania was third; Columbia fourth and Cornell fifth. Columbia rowed the last quarter of the mile with an almost waterlogged shell, which filled near the stern when three feet of plank was ripped out by striking a submerged log.

The 'varsity race was postponed until after seven o'clock on account of rough water. Twenty thousand people saw the races. Secretary of the Navy Metcalf viewed the contest from the gunboat Yankton, while nearly 400 midshipmen cheered the Annapolis crew from the observation train and from the bridge and conning towers of the United States monitors Arkansas, Florida and Nevada, anchored near the finish line.

OIL KINGS CALLED TO COUNT.

Judge Landis Orders Subpoenas For Rockefeller and Others.

Chicago, June 27.—Within three days United States marshals will be camping on the trails of John D. Rockefeller, H. H. Rogers and other officers of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey with subpoenas to compel their attendance in Judge K. M. Landis' court at 10 a. m. on July 6.

The order for these subpoenas was issued by Judge Landis after John S. Miller, attorney for the Standard Oil company of Indiana, had refused to supply the court with certain information requested.

Andrew Bauer, cashier in the branch office of Simpson, Crawford & Co., New York, was knocked senseless by two thugs and robbed of $2,000 while placing the money in the safe.

Attorneys for the eight principal Missouri railroads and Attorney General Hadley for the state have practically agreed to take the matter of jurisdiction in the enforcement of the Missouri two-cent law to the United States supreme court.

HURLED INTO A TREESY CAR.

Mysterious Death of a Man on the Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, June 27.—Passengers on a trolley car crossing the Brooklyn bridge Wednesday night were horrified when the rear window suddenly crashed in, admitting the form of a man who landed senseless and bleeding in the car aisle.

Where the man came from is a mystery. He was dead when an ambulance surgeon reached the scene a few minutes later. The neck was broken and a fractured rib had pierced a lung. Papers found on the body indicated that the victim was John Nelson, an electrical engineer of Brooklyn.

How he came to be thrown through the window into a car may never be known as the police, after a thorough investigation, failed to determine how such an accident was possible.
